OXFORD.

The inaugural ball was well attended.
Fred Gray of Lewiston was in town last week.

An epidemic of measles has been prevalent in the village.

Annie Wardwell of Stoneham, Mass., is in town on a visit.

Dry wood is selling at $4.00 a cord. A drama is soon to be produced by a local company.

More ice has been cut than the outlet of Thompson pond than in any previous year. The swamps are full of box traps for catching mice in live.

Wm. E. Bumpus had a cargo of snow shoes come in last week and sold them all.

The fair at the new hall was a success financially.

A theatrical company gave an afternoon performance here Wednesday, March 15.

The roads are getting into bad shape and the woodmen are rushing business.

The poor trout are being pursued relentlessly by the eager fishermen but fall to the company.

Two new knapen looms have been put in the woolen factory.

Lombard caught a nice red spot trout in the outlet Saturday night.

Charles Faraban is in town from Bridgton.

Clara Farris drove to Locke's Mills Saturday and back Sunday. He brought back two horses.

Charles Jones and Tony Peterson of Gorham, N. H. Mr. Bumpus was taken sick with the measles.

Mrs. Charles Jones and Tony Peterson of Gorham, N. H. arrived here Saturday. An influenza has been going the rounds of the stables this winter but is now abating.

Mrs. Henry R. Everett is very ill with pneumonia, which she suffered from.

A George Lival brother has been confined to bed for the entire winter with a severe liver trouble.

Mr. Wm. Faunce is much better, so the family will move home.

Sw. Swift, is still a great sufferer with a hoarse voice.

Nat Frost shipped and fell very violently in crossing the sidewalk in front of his Mulholland's millinery store Friday. It is feared he is quite badly hurt as he cannot get up under control.

A spirited horse owned by George Haran ran away Saturday, his little 9 year old mare, which he was riding in the high at the time. But the plucky little steed instead of becoming scared and running off to some place where he would be safe, he galloped furiously in guiding the furiously galloping mare and passing teams, and in finally getting him under control.

The Boston Globe reporter was much upset by the accuracy and promptness of the information furnished by the postmaster from the Norway office last week. It may be likely to file further messages there whenever the opportunity offers.

K. Kase has purchased one of the best detective cameras in the State. He brought it into the State. He got it made by newspaper work, but when at leisure he will photograph villages, landscapes, animals, etc., at the very low price of $2 per dozen pictures. As the camera is portable and can be used in any position, it is used at its greatest speed in taking colored picture in 1-thousandth part of a second. It is also used as an opportunity to take pictures of horses and other pets as never before.

NUMBER DISTRICT.—Shoveling snow breaking road in town. The chief employment of the people in this locality is the blizzard. Tanning—was supplied for more until they could break road through on back street, leaving the main road through the neighborhood blocked up for a mile wide. Fence sets the road at each end. By order of the selectmen the road has been opened as far as possible and travel has been resumed on the main line.

BROWNFIELD.

Interesting meetings are being held this week at the Congregational church and evenings. Mr. Merrill is a straight-forward, earnest preacher, one who believes in the Bible and christianity and could object to his sermons or preaching. His singing is small attraction. He will preach this week morning and evening.

St. Patrick's Day was observed. John Sullivan by donning the emerald green in the form of a St. Patrick's Day (everybody knows John, he has charge of the stock room at the store) informs us, was purchased by him in New York at much trouble and expense. He looked rather lonesome in solitary parade. John enjoys doing things all by himself and probably there had been more in the display would have been a John less.
